YEAR 1/2 EXCURSION: FIELD OF MARS ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION CENTRE

Friday 24 August / Wednesday 29 August / Monday 3 September 2018

Dear Parents / Caregivers,

Year 1 and 2 students will be visiting the Field of Mars Environmental Education Centre in East Ryde as part of this term's Geography unit 'Features of Places'. Students will investigate the natural and human features of the bush, riverbank and mangrove areas and how they are used and cared for. Students will be acquiring and processing geographical information. The excursion will include bushwalking.

Students will travel to and from the venue by bus, departing school at 9.00 am and returning at approximately 2.45 pm. The cost of the excursion has been included in the Term 3 invoice.

Students are to wear their school sports uniform with sports shoes for bushwalking and bring a jacket and a hat. As this is an outdoor excursion, please ensure that your child has applied sunscreen in the morning. Students will need to bring their morning tea, lunch and a water bottle packed into a small backpack which they will carry all day. Students will be required to bring all their rubbish back with them.

Classes 2GF, 2DL, 1MP, 1MD and 1EG will attend on Friday 24th August.

Classes 1AM, 1JW and 1LL will attend on Wednesday 29th August.

Classes 2WL, 2RO, 2DW and 2EG will attend on Monday 3rd September.

Please complete the permission slip below and return it to the class teacher. Each class will be accompanied by the class teacher and two parent helpers.
